

Manvish eTech Smart card reader

Device Features:

- Easy to handle
- Cost effective
- Excellent after sales support and service
- Enables Field automation
- Barcode reader, RFID, Smart card, Biometric
- Optional in-built/external printer interfaces
- Real-time data useful for production planning, logistics and related time sensitive activities
- Multiple Communication options.
- Large monochrome/color Display (Graphic LCD)
- Rechargeable battery
- ROHS compliant
- Data back up.
- Integrity and Accuracy of data input (error free).
- Aid effective management of resources and inventories.
- RS 232, Ethernet, GSM, GPRS, WiFi interface
- Can also be used as a hand held mobile reader

Value added features:

- The Unit can be configured as a stand alone or on network mode.
- The unit operates with a battery and with POE (Power over Ethernet) as per IEEE 802.2af standard web server for platform independent operation.
- Built in RFID to process personal ID built, and integrated with database server.
- Support TCP/IP protocol up to 10/100 Mbps.
- Device is IP enabled, connects directly to the internet without the need of a PC.
- Has a template capacity up to 50,000 in standalone mode
- Supports Multilanguage
- Has an optional inbuilt camera for added surveillance
- Remote monitoring and anti vandalism features
- Alarm against forced removal
- Customized report generation

Available in the following types:

- Proximity 125KHZ
- Swipe
- Insert

Manvish eTech owns the IP rights of all its products

So what are the benefits to you as a user?

- a. This implies that a high degree of customization with respect cost-volume-features, form factor and applications is possible.
- b. High reliability design and easy maintenance. Design incorporates remote diagnostics and application porting.
- c. Easy replacement.
- d. Excellent after sales support and service